CHURCH NOTES.

Can anyone believing in God give any reason for not going to church? The church stands for the purity and sanctity of the home, the purity and rectitude of personal life, the highest morals, the best laws. It stands for justice, righteousness and good government. It is the great instigator and patron of all true benevolence. Skepticism never founded an asylum.

A grand Sunday school rally will be held with the church at Flatwoods, Sunday, September 27. Dr. R. H. Cross, field, of Transylvania University, will deliver two sermons, morning and afternoon. Sunday school exercises will be held after the morning service. Lunch will be served on the ground for all. A cordial invitation is extended all.

Dr. W. L. Gevedon will preach at the Regular Baptist church on Second St. next Saturday at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 3 o'clock p. m., also Sunday morning at 11 a. m., and at 3 p. m.

Dr. W. L. Gevedon will preach at Kavanagh school house next Saturday and Sunday night.

Attendance at Christian church Sunday school last Sunday, 558; collection, $21.93. Sunday, September 27, the contest with Danville will close. Supt. John Arnold is particularly anxious that there should be a large attendance on the last day and asks us to urge every member and every friend of the good cause to come and bring one or more with him. The desire is to make it a record breaking day.

There was much disappointment in Mr. Turley's Bible class not being able to accept the invitation of Mr. Sterling to be with them last Sunday to meet with Bible classes from Paris, Winchester and from the entire County of Montgomery and the city of Mt. Sterling included. Satisfactory transportation arrangements could not be made, and for this reason the trip had to be abandoned.

Rev. R. L. Telford, of Franklin, N. C., will preach at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Next Sunday is going to be "Banner Day" at the Flatwoods Christian Church Sunday School. Rev. Calhoun, of Lexington, who held such a successful meeting with the church some time since, will be on hand. Dinner will be served on the ground. The largest attendance of the year is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gideon Taylor, of near town attended the dedication of the Baptist church at Irvine last Sunday. They report a big crowd in attendance. Dr. Powell, of Louisville, preached the sermon. Money enough to clear the church of debt was raised. A bountiful dinner was served on the ground.

The Climax Delivered The Goods.

About the middle of June a gentleman living between Richmond and Lexington, Ky., R. D. 10 was his address, lost a pocket book containing a $10 bill, some small change, a ring and several other articles. It was advertised in one of the Lexington dailies for some days without result. Last week an ad. was sent to the Climax. The paper came out Wednesday morning. On Thursday a young man named Boyd Wells read the local about the loss and Sunday last returned the pocket book with all its contents to the owner. Young Mr. Wells declined to accept any reward, but the owner of the pocket book insisted that he should receive some compensation. That was an honest young man and it shows that the Climax is the place to advertise if you want to get results, as it is read in practically every nook and corner of this and neighboring counties.

The Masonic Temple Collapses.

On last Saturday morning, about 8 o'clock, our whole town was startled by a noise resembling the rumbling of an avalanche, and so it proved to be. The front of the Masonic Temple, the lower floor of which was occupied by the clothing firm of R. C. H. Covington Co., had, almost without warning, collapsed. The cause is still a matter of speculation, but it is supposed to have been brought about by the slow undermining of the foundation from water. The colored boy, John Cobb, noticed first about 7 o'clock and called Mr. Covington's attention to the same when he came to the store. A little later the large plate glass in the window cracked and almost before any one dreamed of the serious condition of the front, down it came with a roar. All of the employees ran out through the rear and no one was hurt, although the dust for an instant enveloped them. This was indeed fortunate, we might say providential.

This property was purchased by the Masons about 20 years ago from W. E. Luxon, who built the house in 1871. In 1898 an attractive new front and a very large addition was made, having a beautiful club-room and lecture hall in the second story, while the third story was occupied exclusively by the several branches of the Order. The beautiful asylum is damaged very little, but the "Blue Lodge" room and the club-rooms on the second story are completely wrecked.

The loss in dollars and cents will be very large, probably $7,500, while the destruction of the old portraits of Col. John Speed Smith and his son, John Speed Smith, Jr., as well as those of Col. Holloway and Judge E. W. Turner, all Past Grand Masters, cannot be replaced. Another severe loss was the Masonic library, containing a complete set of all the Grand Lodge reports from 1819 to the present. These books had been given to the Lodge only last year by William Fowler, of Washington county, and they cannot be replaced. It is the intention of the Masonic Temple Company to begin immediately the reconstruction of the building.

Go West.

The counties of Christian, Daviess and McCracken held local option elections Monday and all three voted "wet." Owensboro, Hopkinsville and Paducah are the county seats of these counties.

The Sick.

Al. Williams, of Red House, continues to improve and with no back set will be out in a few days.

Mrs. E. C. Wines, Sr., continues quite sick at her home on Collins street. Her family and friends are uneasy as to her condition, which they regard as serious.

Mr. R. E. Turley hears daily from his wife who was operated on a week ago at Rochester, Minn. She is improving steadily and hopes to be home in about ten days.

Mrs. Wm. H. Miller, who has been ill at her home on North street for several months, continues in practically the same condition. Little if any change is noted in her condition for some weeks past.

Mrs. R. B. Terrill is recovering nicely from the accident she sustained some ten days ago.

Mrs. Jessup, of Xenia, O., and mother of Capt. C. S. Jessup, express agent this city, continues very ill. Capt. Jessup goes to spend a day or two with her every few weeks.

"The Queen of the Movies" In Lexington.

"The Queen of the Movies," which will be the attraction at the Bon Al Theatre, Lexington, for three performances, Sept. 28-29, with a matinee on Tuesday, is a musical comedy with real music, honest-to-goodness comedy, a cast filled with strong individuals and contains a chorus the like of which for its beauty and shapeliness has never before been seen away from Broadway.

In an era noted for the extravagance and display of its theatrical exhibits, "The Queen of the Movies" ranks as the season's most prodigious specimen.

"The Queen of the Movies" is full of snap from the rise of the curtain, brimming over with all that is the latest word in the dancing world and its catchy songs and up-to-date dialogue is enough to carry two entertainments of its kind. The company consists of 80 people and an all-star cast headed by Miss May De Souza.

The story is that of a war between the movies and anti-movies, with Cecilia Gill representing the movies and Mrs. Clutterbuck, society leader and wife of a millionaire, leading the anti-movie forces. The battle is going rather against the movies until Cecilia conceives the idea of getting a film of Mr. Clutterbuck and hers elf, trusting to its possession to force the anti to abandon their warfare. Of course she wins.

The fun of this new and exhilarating musical comedy is kept at top-speed throughout the entire performance. The dances are new and bewilderingly graceful. The music is a delight and half a dozen of the numbers—"Oh, Cecilia," "Follow the Crowd," "In the Night," "Girls, Run Along," "Whistle" and "Mooring Along," have been sung, whistled and danced to throughout the land.

This attraction will be given with a specially augmented orchestra. Seats ready Friday, 25th. Remittances sent to Manager Charles Scott will receive prompt attention.
